

Our People, Our Technology. Making Great Impressions.

Machine Operators – Bindery

About our company

Freeport Press Inc is the one of the 200 largest publication printers in North America. Our state-of-the-art, high technology facility manufactures short run publications, niche magazines and catalogs for clients located in all 50 states. We are one of the most progressive printing companies in the country and continue to grow in spite of the tough economic times.

We currently have full-time openings in our binding and finishing departments.

Your tasks

JOB TITLE: Machine Operator - Bindery

FUNCTION: Manufacturing and Distribution

We are currently seeking bindery machine operators on a rotating 8 and 12 hour shifts for both perfect binding equipment and Saddle stitching equipment. The applicant must be able to operate the machines effectively and safely according to standards to ensure a quality product; perform and document preventative and routine maintenance and perform makereadys.

Our requirements

1. Previous Perfect Binding / Saddle Stitching Machine Operator experience preferred
2. Demonstrated skill in mechanical aptitude
3. Ability to read and interpret production instructions
4. Basic computer skills
5. Possess strong communication, organizational, and leadership skills

We offer competitive pay and a comprehensive benefits program.

Please apply online at our website www.freeportpress.com .

Or you can mail your resume to Freeport Press Inc – P.O. box 198 - 121 Main Street, Freeport, Ohio 43973 Attn: HR -Machine Operator

Or apply at our Human Resources department at the above address.

Or fax your resume to Fax: 740.658.3963 and mention that you are applying for the Machine Operator position.

Equal Opportunity Employer